Approximately 15 kilometers from the Quebec border, the Town of Larder Lake is rich with historical lore, including tales of Natives quarrying for arrowheads 5000 years ago, European fur traders struggling for ownership of trading posts and routes, lumber camps and mills in the early 1900's and more.

Larder Lake offers a friendly, small-town atmosphere that is inviting to young and old alike. Our lakefront location and unique Northern charm combine to create a community which is the perfect alternative to the hustle and bustle of city life. Although our town is relatively small, our residents enjoy a variety of services and amenities which make this an ideal place to call home.
